

Acea Ambiente Srl

COMPANY CERTIFICATIONS
SAFETY	QUALITY	ENVIRONMENTAL
UNI ISO 45001:2018	UNI EN ISO 9001:2015	UNI EN ISO 14001:2015 EMAS 1221/2009

ENERGY SAVING INITIATIVES
Energy Management System ISO 50001	The company adopts energy management systems (ISO 50001).
Energy consumption reduction initiatives	The company takes initiatives to reduce energy consumption.
Renewable Energy Sources	The company uses energy from renewable sources.
Water consumption reduction initiatives	The company takes initiatives to reduce water consumption.

ENVIRONMENTAL SUSTAINABILITY AND GREENHOUSE GAS REDUCTION INITIATIVES
Global sustainable development goals
Global goal formalisation	Current stakeholders were identified extensively for all sites with reference to the most sensitive ones e.g., local communities, institutions, universities, representatives in the area, internal workers; they were invited to a series of initiatives dedicated to them including thematic focus groups, one-to-one interviews, filling out of questionnaires to capture the degree of satisfaction.
Environmental policy document	Communication of environmental performance achieved through annual publication in the Environmental Statement and Sustainability Report. Experiments and projects aimed at improving service quality, increasing environmental performance with reference to the best available economically and technically adoptable techniques, reducing energy consumption and improving energy performance. Collaboration with institutions to promote the development of new environmental and community awareness values.
Changes determined by sustainability strategies:	The sustainability strategy has resulted in one or more of the changes in the business model and on business processes.

Purchases and supplies
Primary raw materials used and their origin	Methane, chemicals, water, automotive diesel, and electricity are purchased from Italy.

Environmental criteria in supplier selection	Suppliers belong to a supplier register qualified by ACEA SpA.
Promotion of action to get suppliers involved on environmental themes	Training meetings dedicated to contractors and subcontractors, focus groups on sustainability, safety, environmental and energy issues, field and management controls and audits.
Adoption of raw material reduction initiatives	Green procurement.
Sustainable purchase policy for travel	Sustainable purchasing policies for travel/transfers have been defined within the company.
Sustainable purchase policy for consumables	Sustainable purchasing policies for consumable products have been established within the company.
Sustainable purchase policy for food and drink	Sustainable purchasing policies for food and beverages have been established within the company.

Production
Green services/products	Acea Ambiente operates in the waste recovery and energy recovery sector.
Product innovations designed to replace dangerous chemical substances	The company has implemented product, process or organisational innovations aimed at replacing hazardous chemicals.
Adoption of production process environmental certification trajectories	EMAS audit.
Presence of a document communicating atmospheric emissions	The company has a document for reporting atmospheric emissions to the relevant bodies.
Participation in environmental innovation research projects	The company participates in environmental product/process innovation research projects with its own and national public funds.

Waste Management
Recycling and appropriate waste management improvement initiatives.	The company has implemented initiatives to improve waste separation and proper waste management.
Waste processing and waste reduction initiatives	The company takes initiatives to reduce and dispose of waste.
Environmental impact improvement targets	The company has defined objectives and targets to improve its environmental impact.

Innovation and research
Investment in innovation and research	The company reinvests part of its profits in innovation and research to improve the environmental impact of processes and products.
Direct atmospheric emissions reduction initiatives	DENOX emission abatement systems.

Staff training
Staff awareness raising and training designed to reduce environmental impact	Continuous training of all staff.

TURN URBAN RE-GENERATION PROJECT
GOOD COMPANY PRACTICES

Client relations
Marketing policies designed to highlight product sustainability.	In the tender specifications.

Relations with local government and the community
Working together with the local council on community sustainability projects and initiatives	The company will work with local governments to implement sustainability projects, meanwhile sponsoring sports associations and cross-country races.
Participation in competitive tenders requiring environmental criteria	N/A
Access to public incentives for green process/product development	N/A
Membership of business associations and networks	Employer representatives; multi-green trade associations.
Direct joint working with business networks and associations	The company collaborates with these networks and associations.
Initiatives and activities in schools	Guided tours, open days, studies and research with universities, trade schools.